

Occupational Health Services

Our Occupational Health team will assist businesses and their employees to maintain employee wellness, reduce lost work days and safely return injured employees back to work.

The Independence Health Occupational Health Services team is specially trained, certified and experienced in providing occupational health clinical services. Our providers, nurses and support staff have a passion for excellence in patient care and a focus on keeping your team working safely.

Independence Health Occupational Health Services offers:

- Treatment and management of workplace injuries
- Worker's Compensation claim management
- Occupational and physical therapy
- Pre-employment, annual OSHA, DOT and hazardous materials physical exams
- Drug and alcohol testing
- Drug-free Workplace Program services through affiliated partners
- Medical Review Officer services
- Immunizations
- Annual wellness assessments
- Laboratory & Radiology services
- Respirator clearance evaluations and Fit Testing
- And many other specialized services

REV_2_16_2022